AFTERGLOW
I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun.
Of happy memories that I leave behind
When life is done.

God saw you getting weary,
He did what He thought best;
He put His arms around you
And said, "Come and rest."
He opened up His golden gates
On that heartbreaking day,
And with His arms around you
You gently slipped away.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone;
A part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn's rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.

We little knew that moment
God was going to call you home
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same
It broke our hearts to learn
you did not go alone
for part of us went with you
the day God called you home
You left us beautiful memories
your love is still our guide and though we cannot see you
you are always by our side
Our family chain is bright and nothing seems the same but as God calls us one by one
the chain will link again

Every burden that we bear,
Every sorrow, every care,
There's a reason.
Every grief that bows the head,
Every tear-drop that is shed,
There's a reason.
Every hurt, for every plight,
Every lonely pain racked night,
There's a reason.

But if we trust God as we should,
All must work out for our good,
He knows the reason.

FOOTPRINTS IN THE SAND One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonging to him and the other to the LORD. When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life. This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me." The LORD replied, "My precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you." Author Unknown	 In Loving Memory of Nathan P. God looked around His garden
And He found an empty place
He then looked down upon this
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be with you"
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home

We will love you

As long as we can dream
as long as we can think,
as long as we have a memory...
we will love you.
As long as we have eyes to see,
and ears to hear, and lips to speak...
we will love you.
As long as we have a heart
to feel a soul stirring within us,
an imagination to hold you...
we will love you. As long as there is time, as long as there is love, as long as we have a breath to speak your name... we will love you, because we loved you more than anything in all the world.
