

A Personal Plan to Honor, Celebrate and Remember

Give one final gift to your family

Arranging your own funeral will:

- o Make your wishes known, so your loved ones won't have to worry. They won't have to second guess if they made the right choice.
- o Eliminate emotional overspending from grief or guilt. Planning can bring peace of mind to your family.
- o Give you a chance to personalize your funeral and make it a celebration of your life. It's a way to get your loved ones involved and make it a positive, healing experience.
- o Help relieve you and your family from future financial responsibility. There are several ways to make sure your funeral is funded.
- o Give you total peace of mind. Planning is one of the most thoughtful gifts you can leave your family to help them cope with their loss.

A simple 3-step process

Planning a thoughtful funeral is as easy as 1-2-3. Our staff will walk you through each step to make sure all of your wishes are recorded and fulfilled.

Step 1: Record Information

This is just a matter of recording information about your life, your career, and your family—all the facts you'll want everyone to know and remember. This is also a good time to write down all the personal information that will make your funeral more meaningful, such as your hobbies or special interests.

Complete the Pre-Planning Step 1 Form and return it to us for safe keeping.

Step 2: Select the arrangements

Our funeral planning representatives will assist you in making choices regarding:

- o Burial or cremation
- o Type of casket or urn
- o Service arrangements
- o Other specific details

We will explain all your options, outline the costs, and make recommendations.

Step 3: Fund the funeral

Avinger funeral planning allows you to reduce the financial and emotional burden on your family. We will work with you to set up a funeral plan to fit your budget. Should you move or relocate, your plan is transferable to a funeral home in your new community.

A reflection of your good planning

Of all the things you can do for your family, planning and funding your funeral may be the most considerate and caring. Nothing will do as much to ease minds and provide comfort in a time of loss. It's easy, affordable and can be done now. Make it easier for those you love...talk to us today about advance funeral planning.

Make it special

Personalizing your funeral is a wonderful way to celebrate your unique life. It offers friends and family the opportunity to reflect on your life. A memorable funeral may include:

- o Favorite music or songs
- o Reminders of hobbies or special interests
- o A lifetime of photo memories
- o Meaningful poems or readings
- o A customized casket or urn

Like every celebration, a personalized funeral is more involved than a standard service, and requires prior planning. It's very important to write down the details ahead of time, and share them with family members. We can help you plan and record everything, and keep your wishes on file until the need arises.
